9. Indemnification

To the extent permitted by Applicable Rules, other than as result of our willful misfeasance, bad faith, or gross negligence in the performance of our duties hereunder, You shall indemnify, defend and hold our Firm (including any and all employees, officers, directors, contractors and members) harmless to fullest extent permit by law (including any all costs of legal counsel and other costs and expenses) from, against and in respect of, any liabilities, damages, losses, costs or expenses incurred resulting from (i) any act or omission by You, (ii) actions taken by Us in reliance on instructions, directions, or information provided by You, or (iii) Your breach of the Agreement .

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the Firm, shall not be deemed to be in default or held liable for damages or claims resulting from the Firm's failure to perform hereunder if such failure is a result of any labor dispute, act of God, act of domestic or international terrorism or insurrection, governmental restriction, power or telecommunications outage, or any other event that is beyond reasonable control of the Firm (including but not limited to trading, internet, computer, Custodian or software malfunctions). No Party to this Agreement will be responsible for delays resulting from acts beyond the reasonable control of such Party, provided that the non-performing Party uses reasonable efforts to avoid or remove such causes of nonperformance and continues performance hereunder as soon as practicable as soon as such causes are avoided, rectified or removed.

a) Acts of Third Parties. With respect to actions of third Parties, You agree to indemnify the Firm and Us, defend and hold our Firm (including any and all employees, officers, directors, contractors and members) harmless to fullest extent permit by law (including any all costs of legal counsel and other costs and expenses) from and against any loss, liability and expense incurred by You by reason of any claim, demand, cause of action or judgment arising out of this Agreement, including for any failure by any person to provide any disclosure to You mandated by Applicable Rules, except for such claim, demand, cause of action, or judgment as may be found in a final judgment by a court of competent jurisdiction or found in a final award of an arbitration panel to have caused a loss to the Account resulting from willful misfeasance, bad faith, gross negligence or reckless disregard of obligations or duties hereunder on the part of Our Firm.

b) Acts of Previous Advisors, Administrators. In no event shall Our Firm be liable for the actions, inactions, negligence, malfeasance, violation of Applicable Rules, or errors of judgment of any other previous individual or entity associated with Your investment accounts and investment advice provide prior to the commencement of Our Services and You agree to hold the Firm harmless with respect to any liability arising as a result of Your previous or other investment advisory contracts. The Firm shall have no duty to investigate, inquire, or otherwise examine the accounts, records and/or acts of any other previous advisor or administrator.

c) Investment Risk and Liability. You represent that no Party to this Agreement has made any guarantee, either oral or written, that Your investment objectives will be achieved and that the Firm shall not be liable for any error in judgment and/or for any investment losses in Your Account in the absence of malfeasance, negligence or violation of Applicable Rules. You understand that You are solely responsible for evaluating the merits and risks associated with any investments in Your Account and that investment performance is not guaranteed, and no method of analysis or investment Strategy is immune from loss. Your Account is not insured against loss or loss of income, there may be a loss or decline in the value of Your Account and its investments due to market fluctuations, and that periods of underperformance are a part of every investment Strategy. Investment management involves a high degree of risk and uncertainty. You acknowledge that at times Your Account may invested in a single or limited number of Securities depending on the investment Strategy or market conditions. While rare, You are prepared to bear the loss of Your entire investment. It is important that You understand the risks associated with investing in Securities and You will contact the Firm promptly with any questions or concerns. A more comprehensive description of all the risks that Your Account may be exposed to can be found in the Client Disclosures.

10. Advisory Fees

a) General Billing Procedures: We provide investment management advisory services on a continuous fee-only basis. At the discretion of the Firm, Advisory Fees may be negotiated to fit a unique set of needs, Services or circumstances. Unless otherwise stated, at the Firm sole discretion We reserve the right to increase, reduce, refund or waive all or any portion of Our Advisory Fee. Any modification to Your fee schedule will be explicitly defined and memorialized in writing and shall be effective thirty (30) days after written notice thereof is given to You. You maintain the right to cancel Your Service with the Firm at any time.

Advisory Fees are billed in advanced and are calculated as a percentage of the total market value of Your Account regardless of the composition of cash and Securities in Your Account unless otherwise agreed upon by both Parties in writing. Your Account will be billed and calculated based on the total initial Account value. Subsequent Advisory Fees will be calculated based on the ending value on the last day of the previous billing period.

b) Margin Accounts: If You maintain a margin Account, the inclusion of margined Securities in the aggregate market value of Securities will result in Your Advisory Fee being calculated on a value in excess of the Account value reported on Your Account statements. Margin balances do not reduce the aggregate market value of Securities upon which Your fees are calculated. Short positions that reduce the aggregate market value of Securities in Your Accounts are added back of the purposes of calculating the Advisory Fee.

c) Valuation of Account: We use the security valuation(s) provided by Your Custodian for reporting and billing purposes. The Firm may contract with a third-party service provider to aid in the calculation and deduction of Advisory Fees.

d) Method of Payment: Unless otherwise stated, You authorize Us, Your Custodian or Financial Intermediary to deduct these Advisory Fees at our discretion from Your Account without prior notification, or directly from another funding Account owned and directed by You, in accordance with this Agreement, applicable custody rules. It is Your responsibility to verify the accuracy of the calculation of all fees deducted from Your Account. We will generally keep a percentage of Your Account uninvested in cash to pay estimated Advisory Fees throughout the year. In the event that there is insufficient cash in Your Account to pay for Advisory or other fees, Securities may be sold in order to pay for such fees. The Parties agree that assets will be liquidated as follows: free cash balances, money market investments, and then as reasonably determined by Us or the third-Party manager.

e) Minimum Fee: Regardless of Account size, we have a minimum fixed annual Advisory Fee outlined on the Advisory Fee Schedule of this Agreement. Third-Party managers, Sub-Advisors and other Securities may have minimum fees or initial investment requirements. You acknowledge that the fee structure might not be economical or appropriate for individuals looking to make few or infrequent small-dollar investments.

f) Client Referrals and Rebates: From time-to-time the Firm may run promotional campaigns to measure interest and attract Clients to open Accounts. These promotions may include, waived, lower or more favorable fee arrangements for new Clients. These promotions may also include reduced or waived fees for existing Clients inviting family, friends, and others to open an Account.

g) Other Fees: In addition to the Firm's Advisory Fees described above, You will also incur and be responsible for expenses from entities associated with the Securities You own and the servicing of Your Account. These fees may arise from the Custodians where Your Account is held, the Securities,

Agreement Terms and Conditions

Funds, Third-Party managers or Sub-Advisors that We invest Your Account into, or the tax consequences from the Securities within Your Account.

The Firm may choose to contract directly with a qualified third-party vendor that has been vetted by Our Firm to receive certain back-office services, such as administrative, trading and reporting services to manage Your Account and to provide a better and more efficient client experience. Under certain circumstances these third-party services may incur fees that You are responsible for paying. Prior to You incurring any fees they will be disclosed to You and You will have the opportunity to refuse their service.

Full descriptions of these other fees are available upon request and located in the fee schedule, agreement, prospectus or other disclosure documents from the associated service provider, Custodian or Financial Intermediary.

11. Voting Proxies

As a matter of Firm policy, the Firm does not vote Client proxies. Furthermore, the Firm does not offer any consulting assistance regarding proxy issues to You. Therefore, although the Firm may provide Services relative to Your investment assets, You maintain exclusive responsibility for:

You may opt-out of having Your information disclosed to third-parties but You understand this may severely limit the Firm's ability to provide Our Services.

13. Non-exclusive Contract

You understand that We provide Our Services to others investors and may give advice and take action with respect to any investor that may differ from the advice given, or the timing or nature of action taken, with respect to Your Account. We shall have no obligation to purchase or sell for Your Account, or to recommend for purchase or sale by Your Account, any security which the Firm may purchase or sell for themselves or for any other investors. You recognize that transactions in a specific Security may not be accomplished for all investors accounts at the same time or at the same price.

In the future, We may become involved in other business ventures which compete for our time and resources. While We will try to act in a fair and equitable manner, there may be an incentive to favor one client versus another with regard to the time and resources allocated to them.

14. Assignment

This Agreement will inure to the benefit of the Parties and their respective successors and assigns; provided however, that We may not assign (within the meaning of the Act) this Agreement without Your prior consent, provided however that You will be deemed to have consented to an assignment if You do not object to such assignment in writing within (60) sixty days of receiving written notification. You further agree that any reorganization, restructuring, or other transaction affecting the ownership of the Firm will not be deemed an assignment (within the meaning of the Act) of this Agreement, so long as such reorganization, restructuring, or transaction does not result in a material change of actual control or management.

15. Term & Termination

a) Term: This Agreement will begin on the Effective Date on the signature page and continue in effect until terminated by either Party (the "Termination Date") in writing. Death, divorce, permanent disability or incompetence will not automatically terminate or change the terms of this Agreement unless instructed by Your executor, attorney-in-fact or other authorized representative in writing. Disability or incompetence will not terminate or change the terms of this Agreement. Your legal representation shall hold the Firm harmless hereunder from all liability arising from such action so taken. In the event that the Custodian terminates the Firm's ability to manage Your Account effectively, the Firm may terminate affected Accounts but may continue to manage unaffected Accounts.

Termination of this Agreement will not affect (i) the validity of any action previously taken by Us under this Agreement; (ii) liabilities or obligations of the Parties from transactions initiated before termination of this Agreement; or (iii) Your obligation to pay Advisory Fees as pro-rated through the Termination Date. Upon termination of this Agreement, We shall not perform any functions whatsoever with respect to the management of Your Account or, and further management of the Account shall be Your sole responsibility.

c) Non-Payment of Advisory Fees: At the Firm's discretion this Agreement and/or management and supervision of Your Account may be terminated without prior notice by the Firm for non-payment of fees or if the Security(s) shares in Your Account are exchanged or reallocated to another invested position without the Firm's knowledge and consent. However, a notice by the Firm to You with respect to the non-payment of fees shall not constitute notice of termination by the Firm.
